

First Vacationers Returning, Couple See Wedding of Niece

Early vacationists are beginning to return: The Henry Brewer's, 17082 Glenburn Ave., are back from a whirlwind vacation that began with a family reunion in Eugene, Ore.

They attended the wedding of a niece who had served as flower girl at their wedding fourteen years ago. Their son, Ken, served as ring bearer at the niece's wedding.

A visit to Portland, Ore., then a fling at San Francisco's Cliff House, Cable cars, Fisherman's Wharf, Japanese Tea Gardens, and Chinatown and then home!

Almost a honeymoon for the Clarence De Camp's, 17003 Falda Ave., was their week-end trip to San Francisco—minus children!

Sans Bates is in bed for a few days after the overdose of excitement caused her to collapse and scare the wits out of her family.

For about a month now she has been on trips, attending her son's graduations, and entertaining a steady stream of house guests.

While her sister and husband, the Pat Hardys, of Shattuck, Okla., were here they toured the Oceanarium, Wayside Chapel, San Diego and Tijuana, and danced to Lawrence Welk's orchestra.

Latest guest is Cherie Parks, who grew up with Jerry and Leroy Downing and her daughter, Gloria, from Klamath Falls, Ore.

Returning bright-eyed and rested from a lazy week of camping at Yosemite are the Hamilton Blacks, 17224 Atkinson Ave., with Sheldon and Russell and the Delbert Alford's, 17280 Atkinson Ave., with Donald and Luana.

Sandra Thomas, 18410 Falda Ave., is entertaining Judy Grimley from Liberal, Kan.

who is visiting California for the first time.

Sandra, a sophomore at North Torrance High school, will return to Kansas with Judy in three weeks.

They have spent a weekend in San Diego, taking in all the tourist haunts and spent some time deep sea fishing.

The Art Moss, 17508 Ermanita Ave., have returned from a week at Yosemite where they pointed out the wonders of California to her sister, Ann Kausman, who is visiting them from New York.

Irene Allison, 17080 Glenburn Ave., was asked to contribute her flaming auburn hair (along with her head, of course) to model Evelyn Brady's entry in the Centinela Valley Annual Hair Dressers Contest at Hawthorne Women's Club.

After a very close contest, they took honorable mention. Also high in the running was an entry by Olive Scott, also of north Torrance.

Mrs. Harold Wright, 17024 Faysmith Ave., and co-hostess Elna Dunn, feted Mrs. Roy Murphy, 17028 Faysmith Ave., at a baby shower.

Everyone was assigned a bird name which they were to be called by all evening. Every time someone used the wrong name they paid a forfeit of a penny to baby's bank.

Present were Lorraine Beaudoin, Beverly Cox, Juanita Dudley, Dorothy Beaudoin, Eva Hamil, Vj Metz, Avis Hoffman, Carol Vaughan, Laura Pesola,

Mr. Reynolds will teach at Madrona Elementary school.

Another baby shower on the same street, was a complete surprise to Beverly Cox, 3152 West 152 St., when hostesses Juanita Dudley and Janet Marsh arrived with 50 guests at the Cox Home!

Newcomers to north Torrance, the Clarence Reynolds and their three daughters, Barbara 5, Bonnie 2, and Nancy 9 months, from Wooster, Ohio, will make their home at 17223 Wilkie Ave.

Thirteen girls from Brownie Troop 1715, roasted weiners and played games at Torrance Park last Thursday.

Adult companions were Mesdames Laura Pesola, leader; Mildred Van, co-leader, and parents H. Sewell and N. Drale.

Also just back from vacationing in Oklahoma are the J. Millers, 170th St. They came back triumphant as they had finally convinced Johnny's sister to move to California.

The Senior Girl Scouts camped overnight at Archie Shields's Girl Scout camp at Portuguese Bend this weekend. Leader Laura Pesola and co-leader Dale Turner also attended.

REMINDER: The Boy Scout Committee of Pack 761 is having a box supper, prizes, Bob Richter calling to squares, and all!

It's a cottons and jeans affair and the public is invited. It will be held at Verburg's Rumpus Room Saturday at 8:30. If anyone recalls any of the box suppers in this area in the past, you know it will be fun!

Feed Store Burglarized

Fifty one-dollar bills were stolen Monday night at H and H Feed Store, 2903 Arlington Ave., by a burglar who removed a rear window pane to get in.

Detective Capt. Ernest Ashton said the thief climbed a stack of baled hay, cut away the window putty, and removed the pane. A tennis shoe track is a clue in the case, the detective said.

Harry A. Hutselar, proprietor of the store, who lives at the rear of the premises, said the money was taken from a desk drawer. A check book was also missing.
